

September 7-8, 2017

Newark, CA

COMFORT™ SM COMMUNICATION TRAINING FOR CA-BASED BAY AREA NURSES

This Stupski Foundation-funded two-day course is for Bay Area nurses to improve the quality of patient and family care by focusing on palliative care communication.

Online Registration Available:

- Register: <http://communicatecomfort.com>
- Limited space!
- Scholarships available!
- More information: comfort@coh.org

Course description:

- Organized by the themes of the evidence-based and theoretically-grounded, COMFORT™ SM Communication curriculum, a national communication training program
- Includes skill-building exercises, role plays, and instruction on how to evaluate the curriculum at course attendees' institutions
- Each participant receives extensive materials, including a textbook, USB of training manual, resources and references, and a copy of the curriculum

Who should attend:

- Nurses living and/or working the following counties: San Francisco or Alameda

Information & Registration:

- $600 registration fee includes: course materials & meals (breakfast, lunch, breaks).
- Discounts: $50 off if 2 or more colleagues attend from same institution; $50 off if register before August 1, 2017
- 6 & 12 month goal follow up & project support
- CE credits: 13 AMA/PRA Category 1 Credit

Course Location:

