

January 24-25, 2018

Los Angeles, CA

COMMUNICATION TRAINING FOR CALIFORNIA-BASED PALLIATIVE CARE TEAMS

This Archstone-funded two-day course is for interprofessional hospital-based palliative care teams to improve the quality of patient and family care by focusing on palliative care communication.

Course description:

- Organized by the themes of the evidence-based and theoretically-grounded, COMFORT™ Communication curriculum, a national palliative care communication training program
- Includes skill-building exercises, role plays, and instruction on how to evaluate the curriculum at course attendees' institutions
- Each participant receives extensive materials, including a textbook, USB of training manual, resources and references, and a copy of the curriculum

Who should attend:

- Interdisciplinary Palliative Care team members e.g. physicians, nurses, social workers, chaplains, psychologists

Information & Applications:

- Free Registration, Course Materials, & meals (breakfast, lunch, breaks)
- 6 & 9 month goal follow up & project support
- CME credits: 13 AMA/PRA Category 1 Credit
- Application: <http://communicatecomfort.com>
- Limited space! 25 teams to be accepted
- More info: comfort@coh.org

Course location:

The California Endowment
1000 N. Alameda Street
Los Angeles, CA 90012

